Men of Marlinton—

Can't you give ONE HOUR every Sunday morning to the study of God's Word?

The Men's Bible Class of the Marlinton Presbyterian Church cordially and prayerfully invite you to come and join us in this important work.

ONLY ONE HOUR

GAME NOTES

As near as we can figure out there were more than thirty deer killed in Pocahontas county in the ten day open season, closing November 10. In addition to the twenty-five listed below, five or six were killed on the far side of the Black Forest by hunters who come in from the Nicholas and Webster side. The hunters known to have killed deer are—J. B. Nottingham, George Williams, Wellington Buckman, H. L. Kincaid, on Allegany; Dewey Burr, Winnie Smith, Moses Underwood, on Beaver Lock; Henry Waugh, Dexter Sharp, Marion Sharp, E. M. Johnson, on Thorny Creek; Orvid McMillon, on Spies Run; Hevener Dilley, Cleve Withrow, Lonnie Waugh, N. A. McElwain, Granville Wilfong, on Marlin Mountain; Fred Galford, on Yew Mountain; J. W. Bible, Guy Doddridge, on Middle Elk. A doe and a fawn were killed by parties unknown on Middle Elk. The train killed a fawn near Seebert, and dogs got one on Knapps Creek.

The law requires that a report be made to the State Game Commission at Charleston of all deer killed. Give the length of horn, the date, the place, and the name of the luck hunter.

There is a report current that the wild turkey season does not close until December fifteenth. This is a mistake. The law states that the season closes November 30. Like deer, the fortunate few who got turkeys are required to report the number killed to the State Game Commission at Charleston.

It is lawful to trap and kill skunks between December 1 and February 1. Be careful not to trap skunks on the enclosed lands of any person without written permission.

Wild geese, ducks, brants and rabbits can be hunted until December 31. Hunting rabbits with ferrets is unlawful, except by land owners on their own premises.

About rabbits eating young orchard stock—just rub the trees with hog lights or anything that has blood or grease in it and your trees are safe. This writer found this out after he had spent 30 cents a tree for several hundred wire protectors for his trees.

CLUTTER-BEARD

Married, Eric Saxon Clutter and Miss Eva Marguerite Beard, at the Manse, Saturday afternoon, December 1, 1923, by Rev. H. H. Orr, officiating minister. The bride is a daughter of M. L. Beard, of Hillsboro. The groom is a member of 1924 graduating class of Washington and Lee University.

Mrs. Flora Brown Bestor, died at her home in Baltimore, on Monday, November 25, 1923, after an extended illness. The deceased was the widow of the late Roland Bestor, of Baltimore. Her father was the late William L. Brown, of Greenbank. She is survived by her two sons, Olin and William Bestor. S. L. Brown, of Marlinton, is a surviving brother. Mrs. Bestor will be remembered by many friends in Pocahontas County, where her girlhood days were spent.

Attendance at the Methodist Sunday School was 217. At the Presbyterian 163. At the latter an offering of $14.50 was made to the Orphanage at Lewisburg.

MRS. LILLIE B. LOCKRIDGE

Mrs. Lillie B. Lockridge died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Milligan, on Camden Avenue, on Tuesday morning, December 4, 1923, after a lingering illness. Her age was 85 years.

Funeral services will be held from the home on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. George J. Cleveland of the Episcopal Church, assisted by Rev. H. H. Orr. Burial at the Lockridge family graveyard on Knapps Creek Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Thus is chronicled the passing of a gentlewoman who through a long life exerted a wonderful influence for all things good, and the circle is ever widening.

Mrs. Lockridge was born Moser, and came from family lines occupying prominent places in South Carolina, from the earliest history of that colony. Her father was Dr. Phillip Moser, who lived near Charleston, South Carolina.

In 1858 she became the wife of Colonel James T. Lockridge of Pocahontas county. His heart safely trusted in her and she did him good all the days of his life. His death occurred in 1886.

Colonel and Mrs. Lockridge were the parents of four children. Mrs. J. W. Milligan and H. M. Lockridge survive them. Mrs. Laura Lockridge Herold, wife of Lanky W. Herold, died fifteen years ago, and Dr. J. B. Lockridge died three years ago. Mrs. Lockridge was a woman of charming personality with unusual mental endowments and strength of character. She retained her mental powers through her last illness, and her thoughtfulness and consideration of those who ministered to her was in keeping with a long life that had been spent wholly in loving service for others. All her days she had been a consecrated Christian, and a member of the Episcopal church.

The praise and properties of a good wife and mother as given in Lemuel's lesson in the thirty first of Proverbs is the fitting tribute to the life of Mrs. Lockridge.

"Her children rise up and call her blessed... A woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised."

A LETTER FROM DAVIS STUART SCHOOL, LEWISBURG, W. VA.

November 29, 1923.

Mr. L. O. Simmons, Marlinton, W. Va.

Dear Mr. Simmons:

We desire to express our special thanks to you today—Thanksgiving—for the two barrels of vegetables you very kindly sent to the Orphanage.

We have many things for which to be thankful, for we remember that you thought of our children last year, and then this year again you have not failed to remember them. The things you sent are perishable, but the motive which has prompted your gift is written upon the pages of life.

It is for this motive for which we are indeed thankful, as well as for the gift itself. In the name of our girls and boys, I thank you, and express the hope that your kind act toward them has brought added cheer to you at this season.

Most sincerely,
Robert K. Robinson,
Supt. Treas.

YOUR HANDS

Need special attention at this time of the year when you are husking corn and doing other outside work to keep them from getting sore and chapped. Get a box of Wallace's Carbolic Salve at your dealer's for 15c; rub in well at night just before going to bed and you will be giving them that special attention.

State of West Virginia.

At Rules held in the Clerk's office of the circuit court of Pocahontas County, on Monday, the 31 day of December, 1923, the following order was entered.

Dr. Charles S. Kramer,

vs.

In Chancery

N. P. Weiford, Nixon Weiford and

Dewey N. Weiford, Executors of Gratton S. Weiford, deceased.

The object of the above entitled suit is to subject to sale the real estate owned by the defendant, N. P. Weiford, to pay the lien existing against said real estate. And it appearing by affidavit filed in this cause that the said defendants, Nixon Weiford and Dewey N. Weiford, Executors of the estate of Gratton S. Weiford, deceased, are nonresidents of this state, it is ordered that they do appear here within one month after the date of the first publication hereof and do what is necessary to protect their interests.

A Copy Teste.

D. C. Adkison, Clerk

P. T. Ward, Solicitor.

STATE ROADS

West Virginia is to have four main state thoroughfares—two running east and west and two running north and south—called "trunk" roads by a writer in the Charleston Mail of December 2.

No. 1 crosses the state from Wood to Hampshire Counties. No. 2 from Hancock County to the Kentucky line by way of Kanawha and Boone Counties. No. 3 is the Midland trail from Huntington to White Sulphur. No. 4 from the Pennsylvania line in Monongalia County to Mercer County by way of Braxton and Nicholas counties.

Pocahontas is not touched by any of these, but Route No. 59 has been designated by the government as a primary Federal road, and starts from Grafton on Route No. 1 and goes through Randolph and Pocahontas to the Virginia line to connect with the Jefferson Highway, Route No. 24 begins on the Midland Trail. Route No. 3 at Lewisburg and connects Greenbrier, Pocahontas and Randolph Counties and with Route No. 59 the Midland Trail to link Route No. 1 at Grafton.

Of the 3600 miles included in the State Road system, 850 miles have been completed and 1100 more are under contract. It is expected that 130 more miles will be let to contract in December.

Of the fifty million dollars of bonds the State voted, the Legislature has made two issues of fifteen millions each. Of this thirty millions dollars, twelve and a half millions will not be available until next year.

DURBIN

The sick people of our community are better.

There is a revival meeting going on in the M. E. Church here. There is good attendance and Rev. Burke is preaching old fashioned sermons.

The C. & O. railroad have a carpenter force at work here now doing some repair work.

Wm Greathouse has bought a new gasoline engine and is preparing to operate a mill for the farmers of this neighborhood.

Lloyd Kiser is our champion hunter—six coons, one wild cat, one possum, lots of rabbits and pheasants.

Dr. C. B. Collins of White Sulphur Springs, has been here on business for a few days.

Miss Mona Kincaid is in Elkins visiting her uncle Luther Burner.

W. W. Warshall, who has been sick for a long time, is able to be around again.

C. F. Hull was at Elkins last week on business.

A. V. Miller was in town Thanksgiving Day. Mr. Miller was a successful lumberman at Nida a few years ago.

The Durbin Mercantile Co. has bought a new Ford truck from the Goodsell Utility Co.

Ralph Yeager, the oil man, is very busy distributing oil from the oil station here.

A large force of men are at work fixing up the W. M. railroad track.

S. L. Brown makes the following report on the November weather: hottest 58 degrees on the 14th and 15th; coldest 12 degrees on the 10th and 20th; mean temperature for the month 36 degrees. Total rainfall 4.01 inches greatest in 24 hours, 1.30 inches on the 4th. A trace of snow on the 15th. Rain fell on 10 days; clear days 11, partly cloudy 8 cloudy 11, sleet on the 7th.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Dumire, near Edray, Nov. 27, a son.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Beverage, Onoto, Dec. 3, a son.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kee, Dec. 4, 1923, a daughter.

Notice

We are again in the field to buy fur. We were a little slow in advertising. The reason was this, there is thousands of dollars worth of fur wasted every year by being caught too soon and by being poorly stretched and handled.

Don't be misled by those high quoted price lists. We would be glad to get the fur for what they will pay you. If we can't get your fur by honest grading and a fair square deal we don't want it. We bought fur from so many shippers and trappers last season and so many of you made the statement that our grading was perfectly satisfactory. We want to say we will give you the same honest grading, and in selecting our buyers we aim to get men that are strictly honest and will give you all they can for your furs, so now if honest dealing and honest grading means anything we want your furs.

Skunk is starting off slow and mfgs. are not wanting muskrat only at a low price, so I will say to those who are buying fur to ship to us to be very careful about those two articles.

Yours very Resp.,
L. D. SHARP.

Notice

All persons indebted to us, please come in and settle, we want to get our business shaped up before January 1st. All accounts outstanding after January 1st, will be placed in the hands of a collector.

CLEEK-MALCOMB

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cleek was the scene of a pretty home wedding when their daughter Miss Jewel became the bride of Mr. Claude Malcomb.

The bride wore a dress of navy blue satin and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. The groom wore a dark gray suit. Mrs. Herbert Crizer, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing a navy blue canton crepe dress. Mr. Herbert Crizer was best man, wearing a dark gray suit. The Wedding Bell march was played by Mrs. J. A. Cleek, mother of the bride. Rev. Palmer Eubank, pastor of the bride, performed the ceremony.

The house was beautifully decorated with green pines and potted plants. After the ceremony a four course dinner was served.

Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Crizer, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Malcomb, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harper, Evalaugh and Ward Harper, Leland Crizer, Mrs. Eudora Pritchard, Miss Mary Lou Pritchard, Miss Margaret Wolfe, Miss Virginia Barnett, Mrs. Ethel Cleek, Miss Lillian Cleek, Miss Mary Cleek, Ward Cleek, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cleek and family, D. A. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hiner, Miss Blanche Hiner, Miss Reta Hiner, Norman Hiner, Mrs. Kelley and grandson, Lloyd Slinaberry.
